

Level 1, Lesson 5 – Exercises

question, past tense (part 2)

Lesson Vocabulary

calendar - month, year, ago

questions - what, where, who

months - January, February, March, April, May, June, July, August, September, October, November, December

Lesson Exercises

Listen and repeat.

Calendar and Past Tense (Be)

Two days ago was Tuesday.

Today is Friday, so yesterday was Thursday.

In April I was in Milan.

Ten years ago he was a boy, but now he is a man.

Three months ago was May, and two months ago was June.

Three weeks ago we were in Milan.

You were here one week ago.

The bowl was on the table in March.

This month is February, and one month ago was January.

Ethan and Levi were in church on Sunday.

The dog was hot in July and August

Questions: what, where, who

Where is the bowl?

It is in the box.

What is on the table?

There is a banana on the table.

Who eats bread?

Caty eats it.

Where are the boys?

They are in Milan.

What are on your feet?

Two socks and two shoes are on my feet.

Who takes the dog for a walk?

David and Sara take the dog for a walk.

Where is my hat?

Your hat is on your head.

What is today?

Today is Saturday.

Who are their teachers?

Marco and Ashley are their teachers.

Calendar and Past Tense (Have, Read, Eat, Give, Put, Take)

The man took a walk in September.

John and I ate pears one year ago.

You and Bryce took off your scarves.

In October Alan gave me a hug.

Yesterday Erika gave me a glass of water.

They had their glasses on two days ago.

One month ago I read a magazine.

Yesterday, Sherrie took my pencil and gave me her pen.

On Sunday Debby ate three cookies.

In November and December we read three books.

Calendar, Questions, and Past Tense

Where is the crayon?

The crayon is on the table, but yesterday it was in the box.

Two days ago it was in my hand.

On Tuesday we gave Ryan an orange.

On Wednesday he ate the orange.

Who ate the orange?

Ryan ate it.

One year ago I had a spoon, a fork, and a knife.

I gave the spoon to Grace in February.

Three months ago Debby took the fork.

Where is the knife?

Yesterday Izzy had a glass of water and put it on the table.

Two days ago there was an apple on the table.

Izzy took the apple off the table and ate it.

Who gave Levi a book on Sunday?

Ethan gave him a book on Sunday.

Levi read the book two days ago.