

Level 1, Lesson 7 – Exercises

drink and negatives (don't, doesn't)

Lesson Vocabulary

contractions - do not (don't), does not (doesn't) drink - tea, juice, milk, coffee

adjectives - good, bad

other - cell phone

Lesson Exercises

Listen and repeat.

Drink

They drink orange juice.

We drink tea and coffee.

Marco drinks two bottles of water.

Catie drinks a glass of apple juice.

I am thirsty, so I drink water.

The woman drinks tea every day.

You and I drink milk.

I drink apple and orange juice.

Josh drinks water, juice, tea, and coffee.

The piglet drinks milk from its mother.

The dogs are hot, so they drink water.

Marco drinks a glass of milk.

Hallie and Erika drink tea every Monday.

Negatives

The baby does not read books.

I do not put my coat on in July.

The dogs don't eat their food.

Alan and Bryce do not eat cake.

Ryan doesn't take off his coat.

You and Sherrie don't have cell phones.

We do not have three hands.

The teacher does not take her shoes off.

I don't drink coffee.

You don't drink tea.

Keith doesn't give his hat to Ashley.

You do not put on a pair of gloves every day.

The milk is bad, so she doesn't drink it.

They do not take their dog for a walk.

The cat does not eat or drink.

No, the cat doesn't eat or drink.

Caty and Levi don't have a magazine.

Grace doesn't give her dog a hug.

Drink and Negatives

Yesterday Melanie drank tea.

Today she doesn't drink tea.

She drinks milk.

Austin was tired yesterday, so he drank coffee.

Today Austin is tired, but he doesn't have coffee.

Josh gives him a cup of coffee.

Austin drinks the good cup of coffee.

I'm not hungry, so I don't eat the sandwich.

I'm thirsty, but the orange juice is bad.

I don't drink the bad orange juice.

Dan, here is a cup of apple juice.

Thank you, Debby. I drink the apple juice.

And Dan, here is a bottle of water.

I was very thirsty, but now I'm not thirsty.

I do not drink the water.